Instructor: Nick Viviano

E-mail: Nicholas.Viviano@dcssga.org

Room: A116 (Band Room)

Course Description:

Students will be able to gain knowledge of music in various forms and genres. They will also learn music terminology, essential elements to music and be able to apply this to performance via counting and note identification.

Course Standards:

These standards are congruent with the Georgia Performance Standards (GPS) for Music and the National Music Standards.

1. Sing, alone and with others, a varied repertoire of music.
2. Perform on instruments, alone and with others, a varied repertoire of music.
3. Improvise melodies, variations, and accompaniments.
4. Compose and arrange music within specified guidelines.
5. Read and notate music.
6. Listen to, analyze, and describe music.
7. Evaluate music and music performances.
8. Understand relationships between music, the arts, and disciplines outside the arts.
9. Understand music in relation to history and culture.

Assignments and Grades:

Assignments will be in a variety of forms. The majority of the grades will be based on daily attendance and participation in class. The following grades will apply based on a cumulative average of all assignments:

100-90 = A

89-80 = B

79-70 = C

69-0 = F

Supplies Needed:

Supplies that will be needed for this class include:

1. Chromebook or equivalent piece of personal technology such as a tablet, phone, or desktop computer.
2. Notebook paper and pencil

Attendance:

Attendance will be taken DAILY. Late students will not be admitted to class without a tardy pass. If a student misses a class, it is the student's responsibility to obtain any missed information either from another classmate or the teacher.

Classroom Expectations:

All rules that are in the Student Code of Conduct apply to this room.

1. Please respect everyone and everything in the room. This includes all your classmates, teachers, and music instruments.
2. When the teacher is speaking, please be courteous and listen attentively. There will be important information given verbally and repeating the information constantly wastes valuable classroom time.
3. Please be to class on time and seated in your assigned seat when the bell rings.
4. Follow all the Chapel Hill High School Student Code of Conduct rules and procedures.
5. Please immediately respond in the proper and appropriate manner when the teacher requests something. In other words, follow the directions the first time they are given.
6. All students are expected to have a working microphone for recording purposes, as well as headphones.

Consequences for Negative Behaviors:

The negative consequences that will be enforced are congruent with the procedures established by Chapel Hill High School.

1. Verbal Warning
2. Parent Contact
3. Referral to Principal for Suspension
4. Process will begin again at Step 3.
